Reading Poems with Each Other

Choose a poem we read, and then address these questions in groups of three, writing down your answers:

• What is the significance of the title? What do you think the title might mean?
• What are some ideas or images that you liked? Why did you like them?
• After reading the poem, what are some questions you have?
• After reading the poem, what are some ways that you see it tying into Buddhism in general?

Be ready to talk about your answers with the whole class.
