Step One
Go to moodle and get into groups of three. Once in your groups, answer this question in about five to seven minutes of chat: what are the most reliable sources that you’ve found in your research, and how do you know they’re reliable?

Step Two
Share information, after the fact, with everybody.