PowerPoint Feedback Sheet

Presenter’s Name: ____________________________________________________________
Your Name: __________________________________________________________________

After each PowerPoint we view, we’ll take a few minutes to, in a sentence or two, give them feedback on their work. One goal here is to provide the presenter with some information he or she can use to revise his or her paper.

To do that, answer the three questions below.

1. What was something that impressed you about the PowerPoint?

2. What questions do you have about the PowerPoint for the presenter?

3. What suggestions do you have for the presenter, in terms of his or her overall work on the subject that he or she presented on?

4. Presenter’s Question for Us: __________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________________________

   Your Response to Question Four: