Brainstorming for Area to Research

Take about five minutes to answer the prompt below.

Prompt: Take five minutes and write down everything, in terms of jobs, employment, or work, that you might be interested in researching and working towards for your final researched essay.

From this list, write down a question that you might want to research.