Bad Grammar Exercise: a Bit of Grammar Fun

Step One (2 min)
Get into groups again.

Step Two (10 min)
In your groups, write the worst possible sentence in terms of grammar and syntax. This involves the following:

- Write a long poor sentence that may even be hard to follow. Write this as a group, and realize that you have 10 minutes to do this.
- As you’re doing this, write down the rules that you know you are breaking at the bottom of the page of paper your working with. Also, make sure that you can explain each of the rules that you’ve purposefully violated. You will present your masterpiece to the group by putting up your sentence on the overhead.
- The group with the most errors and most hideous sentence wins my undying respect.