In the Middle Work (20 min)

Step One
Write down three key things that you have learned, to date, about your research. What are the coolest, most depressing, or most interesting things you have learned about your topic, via your research, to date?

Step Two
Next, share this with two other people, face to face. For your group, come up with one cool thing to share with the group.