Peer Review of Unit One Assignment

After reading your peer’s piece, take ten minutes or so to respond to the questions below. When you are done, make sure that you actually talk to your peer about his/her assignment.

Question One
What was the strongest part of the assignment, and why was it strong?

Question Two
In your own words, what are the students asked to learn, and why would that learning be important to the conduct of any writing class?

Question Three
What does, or doesn’t, motivate students to complete the assignment?

Question Four
What further comments or questions do you have for the author?

Question Five
Answer the author’s question.

Question Six
Answer the author’s question.