Forming a Debate Question (15 min)

Today, we're going to choose a debate topic that will help us think through the texts we will have read by Monday of next week.

To do this, you will meet with two others and answer this question with a statement that could be debatable: What do you want to want to debate in terms of life after college?

My contribution: Everyone should seek out a calling in life.