Peer Review Debriefing (5 min)

Take two minutes and answer the following question: what is the most important thing that I learned about my paper today?

Take about three minutes and respond to this question: what are three things that I want to do between now and the next draft I write?

Hang onto this, and then make sure to use it when we work on this.