Starting Lines Reading: In Class Work

Step One
Read (Aloud) “This Bud’s For Men”.

Step Two
Answer these questions after reading, and make sure that you write down all of your answers, with all of your names, on the sheet Chris Gives You.

1. What is the thesis of this piece? (Write it down below.)
2. What seem to be the main subtopics the writer develops? (List all of them below.)
3. What evidence does the author use to develop his subtopics? (List them below.)
4. The author doesn’t list counter arguments, what might some be? (List them below.)
5. What does your personal experience tell you about the author’s thesis? Is he making a mountain out of a molehill, or does he really have a point? (Write down some of your own personal experiences that tie in with what is said, and also make sure that you put some notes below.)
