Writing Exercise for Day One
(15 min)

Step One: Choose a favorite song, poem, set of lyrics, recently released CD, or music performance you have seen.

Step Two: Describe, for someone unfamiliar with the thing you just chose, why the song, poem, set of lyrics, recently released CD, or music performance is compelling and interesting. Do this by describing the object/performance as vividly and descriptive as possible.

Step Three: Finally, why is the thing you just described important to you? Why might it be important to others?
