Digging Deeper: Looking for an Important Article

Step One
Bring out your paper from the library, get ready to turn it in.

Step Two
You dug into a book and it’s works cited, now we’ll do the same with your favorite article. Bring it up. Look at the works cited and find a name that comes up again and again in your best article to date.

Step Three
Find this important text using, probably, one of these three databases:
   a. EBSCOhost
   b. Expanded Academic
   c. JSTOR

Step Four
Be ready to talk about this question: Where else can you go to get more information to work with—to bring into your paper?
