Discussion of Reich and “The Chemical Engineer Who Lacked a Chemical”

Step One
Answer the question below:
- What does Reich mean when he says that we are living in the age of the “great deal”, and what do you think is the significance of living in this age?

Step Two
Get together in a group, based upon what you wrote about, then come up with a combined answer to the question that you just wrote about. Also, write down and ask one question to the whole group.
