Panel Presentation Feedback Sheet

Presenter's Name: ________________________________________________
Your Name: ______________________________________________________

After each Panel, we'll take a few minutes to, in a sentence or two, to give the panel feedback on their work. One goal here is to provide the presenters with some information they can use.

To do that, answer the three questions below.

1. What was something that impressed you about the Panel as a whole?

2. What questions do you have about the panel?

3. Presenters’ Questions for Us:
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

Your Response to Question Three:

OTHER COMMENTS: