Where are YOU in the UCSB Writing Requirements?

Please note the following:

1. Computer Science students do not take the “E” series Writing courses, but instead take Writ 1, Writ 2, and Writ 50, Writ 107T, or Writ 109ST. See GEAR for details.

2. CHE, CE, EE, and ME majors must complete Writ 2E and Writ 50E within the first year.

3. First year CHE, CE, EE and ME majors who enter with SO standing or place into Ling 3A, 3B, or 3C, please see the Undergraduate Advisor in the Writing Program for further information regarding taking Writ 2E and Writ 50E.

---

Have you fulfilled the Entry Level Writing Requirement (ELWR)?
(with Writ 1/1E or by appropriate AP, IB, or SAT scores)
If unsure, visit your GOLD account and run a Progress Check.

---

Have you fulfilled the UCSB Area A1 Requirement?
(with Writ 2/2E or by appropriate AP, IB, or SAT scores)

---

Sign up to take the AWPE!
(For more information and to sign up visit: http://www.writing.ucsb.edu/awpe.htm)

---

Take Writ 50/50E
*CHE, CE, EE, and ME majors must complete Writ 50E their first year
*CS majors should take Writ 50 in their second year
*Junior and Seniors must take Writ 107T or 109ST

---

You have completed UCSB Area A General Education Requirements.

---

Want to apply your writing knowledge? Look into the Professional Writing Minor!
(For more information visit: http://www.writing.ucsb.edu/minor.htm or talk to the Undergraduate Advisor, Arianna Meza, ameza@hfa.ucsb.edu)