

WRITING PROGRAM
Proposal for Writing 199: Independent Studies in Writing

Prerequisites for proposing a Writing 199 course:

- Upper division standing
- 3.0 GPA for the preceding three quarters
- Area A requirement satisfied
- Consent of the instructor and Writing Program Director
- One course from Writ 105A-Z, 107A-Z, or 109AA-ZZ

DIRECTIONS:

To propose a Writing 199 course, complete section A and B, then submit to your instructor for completion of sections C and D.

A. STUDENT INFORMATION

Name and Perm _____ Quarter/Year _____

Major _____ Units Completed (min. of 90 required) _____

199 Instructor _____ GPA for Preceding 3 Quarters (3.0 required) _____

Upper division writing course(s) taken _____

B. COURSE PROPOSAL

Title of Project: _____ Number of Units (1-4) _____

(Note: Final units will be determined by the consensus of the instructor and the Writing Program Director)

Is this course being proposed as an elective for the Professional Writing Minor? ____Yes ____No

Description of project (list readings and writing requirements):

Student Signature

Date:

C. PROPOSAL REVIEW

Number of hours per week instructor will direct/supervise this project _____

Does this course duplicate material available in a regularly scheduled course?

What programmatic purpose does this 199 course help the student achieve?

D. REQUIRED SIGNATURES

APPROVED _____

NOT APPROVED _____

Notes:

Instructor's Signature _____ Date _____

Director's Signature _____ Date _____